Comparing seam metrics

A different content exchange has been done for the same circular patch. They are however perceived very differently. This depends on how the differences are distributed along its border. While MSE cannot discriminate these cases, our measure I magnifies consecutive high-error pixels along the patch border. Graphs plot both errors along the border in the range $[0, 2\pi]$.